Afghan Nobel Prize Nominee Talks About Adventure Travel

Tuesday October 19, 2010

Dr. Sakena Yacoobi, a 2005 Nobel Prize nominee from Afghanistan, gave the closing speech at the recent Adventure Travel Trade Association meeting in Scotland. During the meeting, Dr. Sakena Yacoobi, founder of the Afghan Institute of Learning, also spent time with ATTA staff offering her reflections about the spirit of the adventure travel industry, the work she is doing in her country, and thoughts on effectively inspiring others. Here's a link to the interview.
